

Heya,
this letter is a little "Goodbye?" to social media if you can call it that. At least from Flora.

I have been on the internet for a long time at this point and on twitter since originally since 2016. Ive seen things that have both made me laugh and feel disgusted on here.

I was especially active during 2020-2023 and have met a ton of people, some good some bad.

I have met creative likeminded souls, I have met disturbing fucked up ones. Ive seen the bright and the dark sides of Twitter and especially the furryfandom.

And I am (to some extend) thankful for that.

In the end of 2023 I gave away my original account having a few thousand followers at the time because I couldn't handle the stress people put me under. I wanted to do social media, but not have thousands look at me and judge.

So I gave my account to my (now) ex and started from zero again(with the same nametag).

Wich turned out to be the best decision at the time for me, since it helped improving my mental health a lot.

Since now people would not stalk what I was doing all the time.

For the past two years Ive been feeling burned out and empty with a lot of things such as twitter, irl relationships and more.

So I will (for now) leave the Fluffy Flora account to rot and maybe return, maybe not. I will move on to new things and try get some more hobbies. Maybe even get back into drawing, who knows?

I don't know if I will abodndon the fluffy flora fursona/persona entirely but I will surely move away from it since I think I need to start a new chapter in my life.

I will still be on discord, steam, telegram etc. My website will also stay online as long as possible and maybe I will even continue to use it, my main focus is to leave this account behind, tiktok, instagram, break up contact to some people I think aren't good for me and move on irl.

Thanks to all the OG people that interacted with me during my time on this platform and I hope you all have a wonderful life. Again you can hmu anytime I am still open for new friendships or just talks.

SOCIALS:

Discord: fluffyflora (might change that someday but I will update it here)

Steam: 1218394775

Website: florafox.github.io/floras-homepage

And now a little "special thanks" part for all the people that I have met over the years on here.

-Rodney:

We have met all the way back in 2021 and we still talk from time to time on discord, I wanted to thank you for still trying to stay in contact with me after all these years. You are a good person, and I am glad that I had the pleasure meeting you. Thank you

-Kirou:

We also have met a long time ago, must have been around 22/23. You are the one that made lots of nice artwork of me and my insane looking minecraft skins!(which I still use!) You're talented dude, keep it up.

-Natani:

I wish you were still around, and it honestly hurts so much knowing what you did to yourself. We have met in counter strike source back then and moved to twitter, started talking more there. We have met irl and hung out so much. So many sleepovers together and dates. Thanks for being a very big part of my life, I will never forget about you I swear, and how much you have helped me through hard times. I'm sorry I couldn't help you the way you helped me. Thank you so much, rest well Alex I love you.

-ProtoFoxy:

We have met in 2021 I think. We have talked so much, we went through so many changes as well. And I remember how shy you were back then. We still talk a lot nowadays and I'm thankful for that. You are a very interesting person!

-Pablo:

Kind of weird to thank your ex I know but uhhhh yk I am not a kid, im over these things. We sure had our problems and issues but I am still thankful that I have met you back then in 2022. We had some good, and some bad times. And there are a lot of moments and things we did I still like to remember today. Even some things I miss. But we both moved on and I am glad we both managed to. Still would be great if we could have a talk about some things in the future. You know where to find me.

I would like to thank many more people but there are simply too many of them so I really cant list them all.

Thank you all and hmu if you want anything from me.
That has been it with Fluffy Flora on twitter.
ByeBye!

-Flora
